

Summary of Tags Covered in Unit 4 Lesson 2

Tag / Attribute	Description
<blink> </blink>	Text within these tags will blink on and off. This works in Netscape Navigator and Mozilla Firefox, but does not work in Internet Explorer.
 	Begin and end a paragraph
 	Line Break – single spaced
<body bgcolor=#0033FF>	Changes the background color of the web page.
<hr width = “50%” size = “10”>	Changes the width in pixels or percents while size changes the thickness of the horizontal rule
<HR color=“red”>	Changes the color of the horizontal rule.
<HR width=“200” align=“left”>	Aligns the horizontal rule to the left.
<HR width=“200” align=“right”>	Aligns the horizontal rule to the right.
File Name	Creates a link to a web page.
 Text to be displayed 	Creates a named destination to link to within a web page.
 Text to be displayed 	Creates a link to a location within a web page.
Google	target=“_blank” opens the web page in a new browser window
 Send Email	Creates a link to an email address
Body Tag Attributes	Body Tag Attributes
BGCOLOR = color	Changes a background color
TEXT = color	Changes a text color
LINK = color	Changes a link color
VLINK = color	Changes a visited link color
ALINK = color	Changes an active link color
BACKGROUND = Uniform Resource Locator	Changes a background image, tiling the picture in the background.
<MARQUEE> Scrolling Text Here </MARQUEE>	Creates scrolling text within a web page.
<marquee loop=“5”> Your Text Here </marquee>	Text scrolls as many times as specified (five times in this example)
<marquee bgcolor=“#00ffff”>Your Text Here</marquee>	Adds a colored rectangle behind your scrolling text.
<marquee direction=“right”>Your Text Here</marquee>	Changes the scrolling direction: right, left, up, down
<marquee width=“200”> Your Text Here </marquee>	Changes the width and/or height for the scrolling window
<marquee height=40 width=50%> Your Text Here </marquee>	Changes the width and/or height for the scrolling window

<code><marquee behavior="slide"> Your Text Here </marquee></code>	This sliding marquee slides once and stops.
<code><marquee behavior="alternate"> Your Text Here </marquee></code>	Alternates scrolling your text left & right
<code><marquee scrolldelay="200"> Your Text Here </marquee></code>	This will delay the speed of the marquee.